- The foothills of the Vosges Mountains with hilltops dotted with ruins of feudal castles
- A visit to the village of Cristallerie of Harz where fine crystal is still blown by hand.
- Discover the city of Strasbourg, its magnificent cathedral from the 11th C.
- Sample some of the best Alsatian wines in the region,

Itinerary: Strasbourg to Nancy Daily Itinerary (August 22 thru Sept 19th)

Sunday After being met by our driver, you will be taken to La Nouvelle Etoile which will be moored in Strasbourg where there will be a wonderful champagne welcome. You will have the afternoon just to relax and then get ready to enjoy your first gourmet meals on board.

Monday Before we begin our cruise, we will take a tour of Strasbourg, visiting the folk museum and the 11th century Gothic cathedral. Some free time will allow you to explore the fine shops. After dinner we take a lovely evening cruise on to Saverne.

Tuesday We wind through the heart of Saverne, past the regal 18th century Bishops Palace. From Saverne, we will take an afternoon drive along the Route du Vin d'Alsace to the old fortified town of Obernai. This is where we will visit the Market Square and the 14th century ramparts that surround the city.

Wednesday Each day we travel on the canal, La Nouvelle has been climbing to the crest of the Vosges Mountains. After navigating two tunnels carved into the mountaintop, we will encounter the Inclined Plane at Arzviller. This unique lock allows a barge to glide effortlessly up or down the mountainside using a sophisticated system of weights and balances. We will continue our cruise through the Zorn Valley where surrounding hilltops are dotted with the ruins of feudal castles. Our overnight stay will be in Lutzelbourg.

Thursday This morning we will cruise past farms and pasturelands and then drive to the privately owned Chateau de Fleville. This graceful Renaissance residence adjoins a 14th century castle keep. The interiors are richly furnished with 18th century antiques. We then return to the barge, which will be moored in the peaceful town of Schneckenbush.

Friday We will enjoy a leisurely morning cruise to Einville and then return to Nancy for a walking tour of the city beginning at the elegant Place Stanislas. Flanked by handsome Baroque palaces and enclosed by ornate gold and wrought iron gates, the square is considered one of the grandest in all of France. The Art Nouveau movement is originated in Nancy. Visit the Musee de l'Ecole de Nancy to see its fine collection. We will moor in Nancy where you will enjoy your last gourmet dinner on board and have a farewell party.

Saturday After your last elegant breakfast on board you will be taken to either you hotel, train station or the airport.

This itinerary will be run in reverse on alternate weeks and is subject to change.
